WTN Pay Services

First platform for purchases, cashback, payments, withdrawals, transfers and sales based on blockchain.

The blockchain (also known as "the trust protocol") is a technology that refers to decentralization as a security measure. It emerged in 2008 and represents basically a way to validate a transaction or record, with fast transactions, low rates and its decentralized nature, independent of trust in third parties and without the need for pre-existing and cumbersome intermediaries. has proven to be highly innovative. WTN Pay launches its blockchain-based sales and payment service in various currencies. Along with sales and payments, it will be possible to make transfers between accounts of the different currencies, all based on an application available for Android.

WTN Pay Rewards Program

With the WTN Pay Rewards Program, you can control your earnings, with the real possibility to accumulate a residual and growing amount of cashback. The WTN Pay Rewards Program is the unique of its kind in the industry, since it is much more efficient than other programs on the market, that provide cashback related exclusively to personal expenses or, if it is the result of sharing, with fixed and punctual returns.

¡Only here at WTN Pay are your earnings recurring!

By helping people save money on products or services they already use, you earn rewards while people stay as affiliates:

“the power of residual income”

But it's not all. By teaching other people to do the same, you are also rewarded for their efforts. And the more people you teach, the bigger your organization will be and the more money you'll stand to earn. There's room for you on the WTN Pay Rewards Program team. Join us!

Here at WTN Pay you are also free to join merchants from which you frequently purchase products or services and that are not yet in our network of affiliated merchants. By doing this, in addition to earning your cashback on subsequent payments using your WTN Pay digital account, You will also be rewarded for all purchases or payments made by third parties in these establishments using our application.

You will obtain a percentage of the turnover of the establishments you accredit!
